A comic panel showing two characters silhouetted against a sunset sky. The character on the left is crouching, and the character on the right is standing. They are on a rocky plateau. The sky is filled with clouds, and the sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm glow. A speech bubble from the character on the right says "GOING!".

GOING!

WE'VE GOT A LONG WAY TO GO IF WE WANNA
GET TO THE BLACK

THAT MAN
SAID IF YOU

HE WILL

SO WHAT?

WHAT?

The background of the comic panel is a dark, rocky landscape with jagged, grey rock formations under a dark sky. At the top, a small portion of a character's head and shoulders is visible, showing a white helmet and a blue and orange suit. Two large, white speech bubbles with black outlines are positioned in the center-left of the panel.

A small, glowing light source, possibly a moon or a distant star, is visible in the upper left. In the center, there's a dark, silhouetted figure or structure. To the right, there's a small, glowing light source, possibly a fire or a light. The overall tone is mysterious and dark.

クハハハ

YOU GOT A LITTLE BIGGER...

The background is a vast sky filled with dark, swirling clouds. A thick black line, possibly a power line or a path, stretches diagonally across the frame from the bottom left towards the top right. In the lower-left corner, a small figure of a person stands on a rocky outcrop that is engulfed in flames. The overall mood is intense and dramatic.
